

Kimberly Dewberry

Where Hope is Found

My mission is to encourage and educate in order to serve those affected by addiction, alcoholism, and dysfunction in the family dynamic in such a way they would see the hope, healing, and freedom found in a relationship with Jesus Christ.

About Kimberly

Kimberly Dewberry struggled for 25 years to cope with the pain, hurt, guilt, regret, unworthiness, and shame brought on by her father's addictions. As her life devolved into a predictable pattern of poor choices caused by the dysfunctional thinking of an alcoholic household, Kimberly's image of God was skewed by an inner turmoil only he could heal. Because of the loving grace of Jesus Christ, she has broken free from the shackles of rebellion and anger, and made it her life's mission to share her journey through courageous prose. Her heart's desire is to help other adult children of alcoholics identify and overcome unhealthy cycles of destructive living that the specter of alcoholism leaves behind. Kimberly often testifies at recovery meetings about the serenity and peace of God's redemption, which are keys to personal wholeness. She also shares biblical insights to everyday problems through her devotional blog, This is My Story. Kimberly and her husband Patrick are the parents of 6 grown children between them and live in the Dallas area with their three furry friends. When not working as vice president of secondary mortgage operations at a North Texas bank, Kimberly enjoys writing, reading, Bible art journaling, participating in Bible studies, and dating her husband.

Why Invite Kimberly

---

Kimberly knows first-hand how the serenity and peace of God's redemption are keys to personal wholeness. Kimberly offers solid biblical truths to help transform women in the grace of a loving Heavenly Father.

Adult women with alcoholic fathers tend to have a skewed image of God. This makes it difficult for them to know how to find hope or salvation. These women are not alone in their struggles. She shares her story of how forgiveness is found in the dark places of shame and guilt.

---

Speaking Topics

LET IT GO

Kimberly shares her gripping testimony of having an addicted parent, the loss suffered, grief endured, and God's redemption through living with addiction in her family. Her story will transform your thinking and take you closer to letting go of the shame and embarrassment of the past and turning to God for strength and hope

FINDING FORGIVENESS

Do you find it difficult to forgive those who have wronged you? Do you find it difficult to receive forgiveness offered by Jesus? Kimberly helps to work through the obstacles that stop us from recognizing the meaning behind forgiving others and what it means to be forgiven

What People Say

LAKEPOINTE CHURCH ROCKWALL, TX

“Kimberly Dewberry has a wonderful testimony of God’s faithfulness and is a helpful resource for anyone on a recovery journey...”

- Casey Christian, Recovery Counselor

Rates

Kimberly is humbled by your interest to have her at your event.

She will speak at your venue free of charge. The heart of her ministry is to share the love of Jesus Christ and the freedom found in His loving arms.

*NOTE*

If travel of more than 50 miles from her home is required, Kimberly asks for a donation of at least $50 + AirFare and transport to and from airport, lodging and food while at the event

Contact

Contact Kimberly today for availability

info@kimberlydewberry.com